Receive Encouragement from these Luncheon Roundtable Discussions!

Each discussion, introduced and moderated by a host experienced with the topic, provides an informal atmosphere for Q&A and dialogue. Bring your lunch, ask your questions, share your insights, and learn what the Lord has taught others.

Please Note: Roundtable discussion sessions will not be recorded.

LUNCHTIME ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSIONS, Friday, 12:45-1:30 p.m.

CHAPEL: How we Prepared (are Preparing) our Daughters for Marriage — Dwight and Sherrill Cover
Preparing daughters for marriage is basic at one level, and profoundly challenging at another — especially when marriage doesn't happen "on schedule" when a daughter is of age or "prepared" for it. Come and participate in conversation about biblical principles and practices that might apply in our respective parenting contexts.

RED 7&8: Preparing for Ministry in the Church — Scott LaPierre
Are you wondering if God is calling you into ministry? How should you (and possibly how shouldn't you) go about it? Do you wonder how to determine your spiritual gifts, and how to go about using them? If you're asking these questions, let's discuss them over lunch in a friendly, casual environment.

MSM ROOM: What you Need to Know about Self-Defense — Bryan Elliott
We will discuss Constitutional law, Washington state law, and the current political climate-including potential implications of these.

LOBBY ROOM NORTH: Table Talk with a Homeschool Veteran — Susan Bradrick
Nagging questions and insecurities can sap you of resolve and zeal needed to begin or continue home based discipleship with your family. Bring your questions—even odd ones—and gain insight and help in overcoming fear and obstacles from a veteran homeschooler of nine grown children. Susan has helped hundreds of homeschoolers over the past thirty years.
