Receive Encouragement from these Lunchtime Roundtable Discussions!

Each discussion, introduced and moderated by a host experienced with the topic, provides an informal atmosphere for Q&A and dialogue. Bring your lunch, ask your questions, share your insights, and learn what the Lord has taught others.

Please Note: Roundtable Discussion sessions will not be recorded.

LUNCHTIME ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSIONS, Saturday, 12:00-12:45 p.m.

CHAPEL: How to Parent Adult Children still at Home — Dwight and Sherrill Cover
Parenting adult children at home the way you parent young children, is a recipe for an unhealthy unhappy home. What stays and what goes? What should change and what should not? This discussion probes parental shifts that must be made to maximize peace and productivity as a gospel-advancing family.

RED 7&8: Home Business Vision Sessions — Rhea Perry
Would you like a vision of how to monetize your great ideas as real projects to supplement income and even replace it? Rhea shares her knowledge of Internet marketing and home business in Vision Sessions with homeschooling families who want to know more about businesses, especially those that create a laptop lifestyle. If you have an idea, let Rhea help you get specific vision to bring it to life.

MSM ROOM: What Are Adult Daughters to Do? — David Eddy
As homeschool children become adults, they and their family navigate many challenges. Because of an unfortunate combination of aggressive feminism in our society, silence or uncertainty in the church, and confusion or inexperience in the home, adult daughters have a difficult burden to grow in grace and faith, honor their parents, and discover enjoyable tasks that are pleasing to the Lord. Join us as we share biblical principles and personal experiences. We desire to encourage this very special demographic of God's Kingdom.
